Equipping the Small Group Leader

October 19-21, 2015

Small Group Seminar

Seminar Specifics

The Small Group Seminar is designed for those in the ministry of formational prayer that seek to integrate healing in the context of community. This event will include lectures on the foundations of group work, group process and dynamics, and the essentials necessary for emotional and spiritual growth in a healing group. Participants will engage in a small group experience using the Healing Care Groups curriculum. All participants for this event must have attended the Formational Prayer Seminar and purchased a Healing Care Groups Leader's Guide.

The following three principles will be the focus of this seminar:

- Small Group Foundations
- Group Process and Dynamics
- Creating a Healing Building Community

Seminar Leader

Kimberly Moraghan is the advisory board chair of the Certificate in Formational Prayer program. She received her Counseling degree from Ashland Theological Seminary and currently works for Healing Care Ministry. Kim is a clinical counselor and is also an experienced mentor in formational prayer.

Dr. Donna Thomas received her Doctor in Ministry in the formational counseling track and is an adjust professor in the program at Ashland Theological Seminary. Donna is a trained clinical counselor and a gifted teacher with several years of small group ministry experience.
