

Christian Counselor Effectiveness Characteristics (Self-Evaluation Form)

Student Name _____

Semester: Fall Spring Summer

Course: Group Practicum Internship

The characteristics below are important for effectiveness as a Christian serving as a professional counselor. Carefully consider each characteristic and then place a (x) in the cell indicating how you believe these characteristics are evidenced in yourself at this time.

Use the following scale in assessing yourself: ❶ Needs Improvement ❷ Meets Expectations ❸ Exceeds Expectations ❹ No Opportunity to Assess

Characteristics	❶	❷	❸	❹
Genuine interest in others —listens well to others, seeks to know others, shows respect & concern for others
Caring and warmth —reflects a sense of mutuality and compassion
Openness —open to differences, self-exploration, valuing other positions, non-judgmental, flexible, communicates well
Self-awareness —aware of own emotions, beliefs, values and struggles
Emotional wellness —deals well with own and other’s feelings
Ability to deal with conflict —willing to consider other points of view, initiates effective conflict resolution
Professionalism —quality of work submitted, attendance, deadlines met, contributing to class discussions

Additional Comments: _____

Student’s Name: _____

Date: _____