Paul Stoffer	AES15	The scholarship award is a continuing expression of Paul and Lavenia's work as active church people in the North Georgetown Brethren Church. It was their desire to see that deserving students were assisted in receiving the necessary training to equip them for useful and productive ministry in whatever path God leads. It was also their wish to insure that students in the future were trained to handle effectively the many challenges facing the church. Available income from the Paul L. Stoffer and Lavenia Stoffer Geese Endowed Scholarship is to be awarded on an annual basis to a deserving student/students enrolled in Ashland Theological Seminary who has/have financial need. Preference shall be given to qualified students from the Brethren Church. Should no qualified recipient attend from this denomination in any year, then the award shall be given to deserving student/students who are of similar evangelical beliefs. The award is renewable upon satisfactory progression of studies. The President of the Seminary or designee will determine the recipient from those who meet the qualifications described in this document.	Need
