
Job Description:

Mental Health Counselor Internship

Great opportunity for a Master-level Counseling Student who is motivated and eager to join Christian Mental Health Private Practice. You will have an opportunity to develop attending skills, learn aspects of psychosocial intake assessments, develop treatment plans, provide evidenced-based interventions, case documentation, case management and provide Christian faith-based counseling based on experience.

Part-Time, Private Practice Setting, Private Office

Duties

- Works under the direction and clinical supervision of independently licensed counselors (LPCC-S)
- Completes intake and clinical psychosocial assessments
- Provides direct counseling for adults, couples, adolescents and children
- Prepares treatment plans and implements evidenced-based interventions utilizing various treatment modalities
- Completes documentation and case management
- Provides Christian counseling commensurate with experience
- Provides appropriate referrals
- Collects and tracks counseling fees
- Participates in individual and group supervision
- Participates in staff meetings and training

Qualifications:

- Passionate desire for mental health counseling in a private practice setting
- Passionate Christian
- Attentive to details
- Positive, mature attitude
- Open to receiving feedback, teachable
- Quick learner
- Good at problem solving
- Ability to think creatively
- Commitment to maintaining confidentiality
- Ability to work effectively and engage with people of various ages and ethnicities
- Excellent organizational skills
- Excellent oral and written communication skills
- Commitment to the organizational mission
- Flexibility, ability to easily adapt to changing needs and expectations

Requirements

- Must be currently enrolled in a Master's-Level Mental Health Counseling Program
- Must be eligible for Counselor Trainee status

Skills

- Familiarity with Windows
- Proficient in Microsoft Word and Excel

If interested, please submit a cover letter and resume for consideration to:
speaklifechristiancounseling@gmail.com

Website: www.speaklifechristiancounseling.com

Location:

Speak Life Christian Counseling and Coaching, LLC
670 Meridian Way
Westerville, OH 43082-2306
614-270-7958

COVID-19 considerations:

To keep our clients and staff safe we are currently offering teletherapy (video conference) sessions only. Our staff wears masks in the common areas and use private offices to conduct their therapy sessions.
