

Licensed Mental Health Counselor, Ohio

Christian practice based near Dayton, Ohio. Remote work a possibility (Telehealth)

Maranatha Family Counseling (www.maranathafc.com) is a booming Christian private practice based in the Dayton area. The owners seek Christian counselors who are licensed in Ohio (or working towards licensure) to join the practice as independent contractors.

The ideal candidate will at minimum have a master's degree in clinical mental health or counseling (or a comparable degree). The candidate will have a desire to use Christian principles in the counseling context and be devoted to counsel from a biblical world view.

The position is an independent contractor role. Practice owners will provide support and infrastructure for their counselors. This includes peer consultation, medical billing services, office space and materials, marketing help, and referrals to build a caseload.

Work from home (telehealth) and from the office are both possible in this role.
