

Christian Counselor Effectiveness Characteristics (Self-Evaluation Form)

Student Name: _____

Semester: Fall Spring Summer

Course: Group Practicum Internship

The characteristics below are important for effectiveness as a Christian serving as a professional counselor. Carefully consider each characteristic and then place an (x) in the cell indicating how you believe these characteristics are evidenced in yourself at this time.

Use the following scale in assessing the yourself: ①Needs Improvement ②Meets Expectations ③Exceeds Expectations ④No Opportunity to Assess

Characteristics	①	②	③	④
Genuine Interest in others – listens well to others, seeks to know others, shows respect & concern for others	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Caring and warmth – reflects a sense of mutuality and compassion	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Openness – open to differences, self-exploration, valuing other positions, non-judgmental, flexible, communicates well	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Self-awareness – aware of own emotions, beliefs, values and struggles	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Emotional wellness – deals well with own and other’s feelings	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Ability to deal with conflict – willing to consider other points of view, initiates effective conflict resolution	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Professionalism – quality of work submitted, attendance, deadlines met, contributing to class discussions	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

Additional Comments

Student’s Name: _____

Date: _____